

it's friday! musicNew releases*LUNIK*Small Lights In The Dark (Nova)

HUGE in their homeland, Lunik could become one of the few Swiss bands to taste international fame.

This album, their sixth, points them in the right direction. Front-woman Jaël Krebs wears Alpine dress on the sleeve, but the ballad Everything Means Nothing hints at Dido while the rockier Falling Up recalls Fleetwood Mac.

★★★★☆